

An Ounce of Prevention

by Wes Flach

Serenity House, a nationally renowned drug and alcohol treatment program headquartered in Abilene, is providing drug prevention training in public school classrooms all over the Big Country through its Impact Youth Prevention Program.

Prevention Specialist Arielle Shaver works hard to communicate ideas in a way her 7th grade girls will understand.